

Framing Questions for Build Your Own Power Structure

In your small group, respond to the following questions that will help frame the power structure you are creating together.

Remember that the time allotted for answering these questions may also include breaks and / or preparing to report on your process to the large group!

1. Who decides on the behavioral norms of the community?
2. How are these norms expressed – e.g. as rules? As agreements?
3. Who is responsible for upholding these norms?
4. What is the result when someone deviates from behavioral norms?
5. Is this person brought back into community? How?
